CFU INSTRUCTORS ARE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

Instructors are not employees of Colorado Free University, Inc. They are independent contractors who are fully responsible for the information and experiences they present in class. CFU assumes no liability for the information given by instructors or any risks taken by class participants under the contractor's guidance or supervision.

POLICIES FOR IN PERSON CLASSES—COVID-19

Evidence has shown that the novel coronavirus, COVID-19, is highly contagious and can cause serious and potentially life-threatening illness and even death.

Colorado Free University, Inc. is complying with CDC guidelines and local orders to maximize the safety of students and instructors attending classes. Students and instructors must:

1. Not attend class if presenting with any symptoms of illness, including but not limited to fever, cough, sore throat, or difficulty breathing or if they have recently been exposed to the virus.
2. Bring hand sanitizer to class and use before and after touching any surfaces.
3. Wear a mask covering mouth and nose within the building and in class (some exceptions will apply, such as playing the flute or eating).
4. Maintain a distance of at least 6 feet from others throughout class.

While we are making every effort to keep our classes safe, Colorado Free University, Inc. cannot guarantee that we can prevent you from becoming exposed to the virus while attending classes. Attendance to an in-person class implies that you accept the risk of contracting COVID-19 and that you agree not hold Colorado Free University or the instructor liable for any potential illness.

I have read and understood the above information. I agree to abide by the guidelines listed above and will do my part to maintain safety for myself and others in class. I hereby acknowledge that I accept the risks of attending an in-person class at Colorado Free University. I will hold Colorado Free University, Inc. and the instructor harmless for any illness or transmission of the virus.
